SENATE.

HOUSE.

Reagan submitted a report announcing that the conference committee on the river and harbor bill had come to an agreement. The report was agreed to.

Bycknell said the joint rule now under consideration was as far as it went substantially the same as a bill which the House committee on the electoral count had reported, and therefore he would support it. He contended the determination of all questions arising out of disputed electoral votes belonged of necessity to the two houses of Congress.

Kernan from the committee on finance reported to the House bill putting a specific duty of 25 cts. per bushel on barley malt in place of an ad valorem duty.

The calendar report of the conference on the river and harbor bill was adopted.

Tucker moved that the House resolve itself into a committee for the purpose of constructing a tariff bill. The Republicans filibustered, and Tucker stating he did not deserve to obstruct public business withdrew the motion.

Harris moved to proceed with the business on the Speaker's table.

The Republicans requested a vote, stating that they did not want to take up the electoral count bill. Gen. Hawley however, stating that he was not willing to dodge that bill but wanted it taken up for consideration and action. The vote was in the affirmative. No quorum being raised yeas and nays were ordered and the motion was agreed to.

Representative Pacheco on behalf of the minority of the House private land claims committee has submitted a minority report on the Santimon bill strongly opposing its passage and condemning the original claim and the alleged newly discovered evidence as false and spurious. The Pacific coast items in river and harbor appropriation bill as finally agreed upon by the committee on conference and passed by both houses to-day are as follows:

For improving the Oakland harbor of California, $60,000, together with the appropriations of money heretofore made, but not yet expended, something over $80,000, or that no money should be expended until the register of the United States bid off the statutory and main walls of this secured free of the Government in a manner satisfactory to the secretary of war. Including improvements on Sacramento river, $45,000; for San Joaquin $20,000; Pelutina creek $8,000; Wilmington harbor, $35,000; canal around cascades of Columbia river, $100,000. Lower Willamette and Columbia rivers from Portland to the sea, including bar at the mouth of the Columbia, $45,000; Upper Willamette and Yamhill Rivers, $12,000; Upper Columbia and Snake, $15,000; Lower Clear Water river, Idaho, $5,000; Cowlitz River Washington Territory $2,000; mouth Conquerit, Oregon, $10,000; Aquina River, $40,000.

The bill contains the clauses inserted at the instance of Farley, directing the Secretary of war to cause to be made such examination and surveys as he may deem necessary to determine the navigable waters of California, to report the result of such examinations, surveys and estimates of each the proposed works made in pursuance here of to congress at the next session.

Detroit, Michigan June 9.—The democratic state convention held at Saginaw to-day nominated ten anti-Tilden delegates headed by Dan M. Dickinson, M. Barnes, Col. J. Emesmore and Dr. Foster Pratt, and favored the two third rule.

Rome, June 9.—Signor Velka has withdrawn his resignation seeing that as a decisive step will be taken Thursday on Signor Crespiere interpellation. It will be made the pretext for insisting that ministers are at variance among themselves.

RENOMINATED.

Springfield, Illinois June 9.—Hon. Wm. M. Springer was to-day renominated for congress by the democrats.

Washington, D. C. June 10.—The President has nominated John F. Hartranft collector of customs for the District of Philadelphia; Virginia D. Stockbridge, district collector and assistant commissioner of patents.

London, Eng., June 10.—Ben D. won the St. James Palace stakes; Fernandez, second; Appolo, third.

Chicago, Ill's, June 10.—The Inter-Ocean Milwaukee special despatch says: During an interview with Grant this afternoon, he expressed the opinion that Seymour would be nominated by the democrats for president. In relation to the republican nominee, he said that Garfield had always been right, and that in case of his election, his administration would be satisfactory and harmonious. The General did not allude to his position before the Chicago convention. He said he was grateful to the friends who had stood by him, particularly Senator Conkling, who should have been nominated he said.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 10.—This is a great day, being the soldiers' reunion. 150,000 are in the city from all points of the country. There was a grand parade in which 2,000 uniformed militia, 2,000 veterans and 700 inmates of the national soldiers home were in line, and veterans of the Mexican war were received by Generals Grant and Sheridan. There was a grand illumination by fireworks, and speeches this evening. Grant and Sheridan were entertained by loyal legions to day.

Springfield, Ill., June 10.—The democratic convention met at 10:45 with full attendance of delegates, and was called to order by F. W. McNelly, chairman of the State central committee who nominated Hon. S. Marshall temporary chairman. Marshall was elected and made a brief speech, arraigning the republican party, and ticket and predicting the success of the democrats in the coming campaign. Hon. L. Trimball who had just entered the hall was loudly called for, and finally responded. Committees were then appointed.

Upon the re-assembling the committee on credentials reported no contests and all the delegates of the full temporary organization were made permanent.

L. Trumbull was nominated for Governor; Lieut. Governor Lewis B. Parsons; Secretary of State, Jno. H. Oberly; Auditor, L. Startat; Treasurer, T. Butterworth; Attorney General L. Homer.

Resolutions opposed the protection of tariff and third term, demanding civil service reform, equal rights, no military interference, gold, silver and paper, no land grant, no eight to seven frauds, and laws protecting labor were passed.

New York, June 10.—Jacob S. Tabor, in his address before the board of trade yesterday, said the merchants of the Pacific coast were chiefly under railroad monopoly and would heartily co-operate in any way toward reform. Their hope lays in the construction of a canal across Nicaragua which they consider preferable to the Panama route.

London, June 10.—The Times says a change in the ministry at Peru may be taken as proof that the Sultan is feeling the presence of the Goshue mission and is trying to satisfy or at any rate make show of sharing European opinion.

GREENBACKERS.

Chicago, Ill., June 10.—The Farwell Hall Greenbackers held a lively session this morning, the question under discussion being whether club organizations in the various states should be preserved but was finally decided in the affirmative.

Berlin, June 10.—Prince Hoenli will preside at the approaching conference.

New York, June 10.—The London race for the Asiatic cup was won by Isonomy, Chippendale second; Tut, last.

New York, June 10.—Statements last eve confirm the reports of an actual outbreak of civil war in the Argentine confederation and says that the president Ahlende had left Buenos Ayres with an army. A private telegram from Buenos Ayres of June 8th says the Southern Railway Co., has stopped train service so as to prevent the seizure of its rolling stock by either party. The national Government has removed its stores of powder from the city. The recipient of the telegram construes its statements as evidence that the present administration is still in control of affairs and prepared for any emergency as the Presidential election will occur to-morrow.

New York, June 10.—The Herald's San Francisco special says: The Pacific coast is for Garfield. The city press and telegrams from north and south are grandly satisfied with the nomination. A French gentleman interviewed by a World reporter yesterday says he had offered to bet $10,000 on the success of Garfield. His choice had been Grant but he thought the convention had acted wisely in concentrating on Garfield.

Santiago, June 10.—There have been many deserters from troops and the Albanian league at Priste. An abandonment is expected owing to want of money and provisions. Twenty thousand Merideths have left.

London, June 10.—British, French, Russian, Austrian and Italian ambassadors, resident at Berlin, and Prince Huenloe, of the German foreign office will meet Wednesday next aided by experts who are to compose the Dalmatian commission. Preliminary labors will commence in two weeks. Bucharest difficulties between Romania and Bulgaria have been removed.

Chicago, June 10.—The Inter-Ocean's Washington special says that the democrats are not elated over the news from Oregon. Several dispatches from the Pacific Slope states that S. are here gone republican. Senator Slater says that there are several democratic counties that have not been heard from and that the probabilities are that they may go democratic. He believes that the democrats will carry the legislature regardless of what the press dispatches claim for it. It is known, however, that the emigration to Oregon in the last few years has been mainly from the stalwart republican states.

Washington, June 10.—The Secretary of the treasury forwarded to the Senate a statement of the expenditures of the United States during the war, and also specified the amount paid on the national debt. The statement of expenditures growing out of the war from July 1st, 1861 to June 30th, 1879 are $67,947,925.08; ordinary expenditures $409,549,123.65; specific expenditures of the war, $5,187,333.85.

GRANT.

New York, June 10.—The World's Philadelphia special says: Col. McClure telegraphs to the Times from Chicago that Grant quietly slipped into the Palmer house this morning and I never saw him look more serene or composed. He came at last to the multitude and they talked pleasantly in passing his acquaintance. He walked leisurely to the parlor, and the outer walls were closed against all. He stepped out in the same ostentatious manner. Logan, Cameron and Steers visited him, and what transpired in their brief council of war will probably never be known to the public; but after Grant had hurried off to Milwaukee on the train, both Cameron and Logan said that they thought that Grant will be nominated in 1884 without any opposition. There appears to be a confident expectation according to this writer that Garfield will never be elected as president, and that one term of democratic rule will make Grant's return to the helm of the United States a necessity.

New York, June 10.—A Herald's Syracuse special says: Governor Seymour was met on Monday in the corridor, of the Onondaga County court house at Utica by Judge Graham, assistant justice of the supreme court, and with whom he is on good terms. The conversation naturally turned upon the proceedings of the Chicago convention. Governor Seymour said, a trifle nettled, I see that a delegate from New York, Roscoe Conkling, said in a speech at Chicago, that Grant could carry New York State against Seymour. If I happen to be the nominee at the Cincinnati convention I shall certainly carry New York, but I am in no sense a candidate. Judge Graham took the precaution to write those significant words, and afterward he gave them to my informant.

SENSATIONAL AFFAIR.

New York, June 10.—John Gempel aged nineteen, leaving on Delancy Street beat his wife this morning until he thought her dead, then threw her out upon the stairs bolted both room doors, set the house on fire and cut his throat from ear to ear. The firemen found him on the bed in the flames and dragged him into the street where he died. The woman's skull is fractured and death expected. Cause, jealousy.

—Mr. C. E. Wesche closed up the Exchange Hotel yesterday morning, his lease of the building from Dr. Knauer having expired. Several parties have been negotiating for the purchase of the premises, but nothing definite has yet been done. Mr. Wesche will devote his entire attention to his large and increasing mercantile business.

—Mr. Winters of the drug store of Herbert & Co. engineered an explosion yesterday which knocked him over. He had a precipitate of an ammonia and iodine compound in the bottom of a filter. He attempted to throw the filter out of the funnel when it exploded, knocking him over and bruising up his face considerably.

—Mr. Geo. H. Utter, assayer has concluded to locate in Vegas. He has rented an office on the east side and has sent to Chicago for the necessary chemicals. He will be ready for work in a week or ten days. Mr. Utter has also bought a couple of lots east of the St. Nicholas Hotel and will build on them at once. He also proposes to erect a number of houses to rent to families. This is a good scheme and deserves encouragement.

—The wind storm on Friday night last was the worst we ever saw in Chihuahua. There had been a good stiff breeze during the day, but it was not till after dark that the gale commenced in earnest. It blew all night and until six o'clock the next morning. The sand and small gravel was piled up two feet high in some places. The wind started from the south but soon veered and blew on its favorite course, from the west. Of vegetation it had the baneful influence of a simoon, and the scrub-oaks, wild-roses, young cottonwoods, etc., were blasted and shriveled on the side next to the wind. It took part of the roof off of the roof of the Masonic Hall—the big stone building. Many fine cottonwoods were shivered, and large limbs torn off them, while two trees, near our office, were broken in two. We hope this storm may prove to have been the final big blow of the season. —News and Press.

Men Against Money.

A friend suggests that the editor pitches into Congress for not voting more money for the army, so that more men can be sent to New Mexico. The editor believes that congress has been voting more money for the army than it should have done, all the time for a dozen years and that the effect has been to encourage fraud and venality, and decrease the efficiency of the troops. The army gets twice as much money and is not half as efficient as it was twenty-five years ago. Then the dragons used to be making raids over into Mexico all the time, while now—just fancy Hatch riding across the line. Wouldn't he get back just too quick? The inertia and imbecility of management of that day was not half so deadly as the cussedness of these times. —Advance.

—Some of the Las Vegas sojourners at the east report, a pleasant time, although it is extremely sultry.
